

B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing & Information Sciences records

RITArc.0591

Created by: Allison Thompson

April 7, 2014

C.S. North, Shelf 321

The B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing & Information Sciences is one of the Rochester Institute of Technology's nine colleges, known as one of the nation's leading computing colleges and research facilities. The B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing & Information Sciences records include promotional materials, annual reports, newsletters, and clippings.

Box 1

- Folder 1: Promotional Materials 2000-2008
  - (4) College of Computing and Communications announcements, undated
  - Kids on Campus postcard, undated
  - Rochester: We Know It symposium brochure, 2000
  - Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony invitation for the Laboratory for Applied Computing, 2002
  - <click/enter> GCCIS dedication booklet, 2003
  - GCCIS Grand Opening Celebration postcard invitation, 2003
  - New Executive Director announcement, circa 2004
  - Announcement of Master's degree in Computer Security & Information Assurance, 2005
  - 5th Year Celebration Invitation postcard, 2006
  - Happy New Year card, 2007
  - Dean's Lecture Series, 2007-2008
- Folder 2: Clippings 2004-
  - (1) 2-page Democrat & Chronicle article "Imaging is Everything" on graduate student Aaron Rallo, 2004
- Folder 3: Faculty List 1999
  - Department of Information Technology faculty, 1999
- Folder 4: Annual Reports 2003, 2004, 2006-07
  - (2) Plugged In, Networked, and Configured for 2004! Annual Report, 2003
  - GCCIS – Game On! Annual Report, 2004
  - Annual Report, 2006-2007
- Folder 5: Newsletters 2004, 2007
  - Tiger Bytes Vol. 1, No. 1, Spring/Summer 2004

- B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing and Information Sciences Vol. 1, Issue 1, Spring 2007
- Folder 6: Self-Study Report
  - Self-Study Report of the Software Engineering program submitted to the Engineering Accreditation Commission Accrediting Board for Engineering and Technology, Inc., June 2002