

Jody Sidlauskas collection on Wildenhain exhibit materials

RITArc.0453

Created by: Skye Poole

March 5, 2013

This collection of materials created by Jody Sidlauskas, Associate Archivist, while assisting Bruce Austin with research for his exhibition book, and while providing Wildenhain ceramic pieces from our collection for the 2012 Frans Wildenhain, 1950-1975: Creative and Commercial American Ceramics at Mid-century exhibition held simultaneously in two galleries at RIT, Bevier Gallery and the Dyer Arts Center from August 20, 2012 – October 3, 2012. This collection serves to document not only the event, but the role the RIT Archives played in the project, as well as involvement of both Jody Sidlauskas and Becky Simmons.

Box 1

- Folder 1 –Promotional materials
 - 4 exhibition announcements [8x5]
 - 2 exhibition postcards [8.5x5]
 - Brochure “Bauhaus at our House” [8x5.5]
 - 3 promotional cards [3.5x2]
 - Card listing where the items on display were borrowed from [5x7]
 - 2 buttons: Frans Wildenhain RIT.EDU/WILD [2.25 diameter]
 - RIT: The University Magazine Fall 2012, article p.8-11
 - Folder 2- Exhibition packet distributed by Bruce Austin and reports
 - 3 Event lists
 - Exhibition card
 - Postcard announcement of Wildenhain exhibit at Phillips Fine Art and Frame
 - Five quarterly reports and a final report, 11/14/2012, written by Bruce Austin documenting progress of his project.
 - Brochure “Bauhaus at our House”
 - Book Sales Revenue: Exhibition catalog
 - 29 Printed or Photocopied articles about the exhibition
-