

Josef Albers 1969 Murals: Conservation Treatment Documentation

RITArc.0689

Created by: Lauren Hubbs

December 1, 2017

This collection contains a written report, photographic identification system, photographs and slides on the conservation of Josef Albers murals painted in 1969 located in the Eastman Building on the RIT campus.

Box 1

- Folder 1: Written Report
 - Conservation treatment report written on September 9, 1999 by conservator James Hamm
 - Architectural Lighting publication October/November 1997
- Folder 2: Photographic Identification System
 - The system can be seen in the photographs in the other folders
- Folder 3: Photographs before treatment
 - North and south wall
- Folder 4: Photographs during treatment
 - North and south wall
- Folder 5: Photographs after treatment but before inpainting compensation
 - North and south wall
- Folder 6: Photographs after treatment
 - North and south wall
- Folder 7: Slides of North and South Wall