

Julian Yudelson collection

School of Retailing

2009:65; RITArc.0372

CS.S. 290

9/30/2009

Mr. Yudelson was a professor in the College of Business. He served as the chairman of the Retail program committee in the late 1970's. This collection was not accessioned when it arrived at the Archives so the exact date of receipt is unknown. An approximate date is estimated to be in the late 1990's.

A note from Mr. Yudelson reads "I believe this is the last material I have from the Retail program at RIT. The last students graduated in May and it no longer exists." [n.d.]

Scope and content note

This collection contains School of Retailing curriculum and planning documents, and curriculum proposals from the 1970's-1980's, course syllabi and descriptions from the 1980's that will serve as historical background for the program. It also contains documents from the Institute Committee on Effective Teaching from 1986-1988. Mr. Yudelson was a member of this committee. It includes meeting minutes, correspondence, committee plan of work, in addition, documentation of services available from the Educational Support & Development Division.
