Collection contains photographs, negatives, and slides related to events associated with the Kate Gleason College of Engineering from 1995 to 1997, such as the Commencement ceremony, Fun Fest, Faculty/Staff Holiday Party, Casino Night and Academic-related photographs. The collection is made up of two boxes containing 5 folders of photographs arranged by subject, however most are unidentified.

Photographs of Commencement ceremonies are from 1995 and 1996, featuring faculty, staff and graduates of Kate Gleason College of Engineering. Many are of students walking across the stage, and posing with family members or faculty/staff members.

In 1998, Kate Gleason College of Engineering organized an event known as Fun Fest on September 18th celebrating the colleges' new name. The college officially added Kate Gleason to their name in honor of Rochester industry pioneer Kate Gleason. Events were held in the Infinity Quad and in the College of Engineering. This event featured food, fun and fine weather that drew more than 800 students, staff, faculty, friends and family.

The faculty/staff Holiday Party features photographs taken of Kate Gleason College of Engineering faculty and staff members. Many of the photos feature faculty and staff opening gifts, enjoying a meal or posing with other faculty/staff members. The Casino Night features photos taken of students, faculty and staff enjoying the casino themed night.

The Academic photographs for the College of Engineering feature students, faculty and staff amidst testing experiments, working in a lab environment, or working in the computer lab.
