

New York Relay Service promotional material

Created by: Emily King

Date: December 8, 2017

- Green drawstring bag with “NCDHR National Center for Deaf Health Research” screenprinted in dark green on the front.
- Blue and red plastic clips with “New York Relay Service 711” printed in white.
- Green and silver “NCDHR” pen in plastic wrapper
- Dark blue metal clip engraved with “Nyrelay.com Just Dial 7-1-1!”
- New York Relay Service mousepad, gray with blue text
 - Includes phone numbers for relay service
- New York Relay Service bookmark, white with illustrations of ASL alphabet in bright colors. (2)
- New York Relay Service brochure
 - Includes description of services and important phone numbers
- Federal Relay brochure – “Internet and Telecommunications Relay Service for the Federal Government”
 - Includes description of services
- Captel Captioned Telephone brochure
 - Description of product and services
- NCDHR press release – “Public Health Outreach with New York State Deaf Communities” – describes outreach programs
 - Deaf2: HIV Testing Video Line
 - New York State Deaf Health Survey
- Speech-to-Speech flyer – telecommunications service specifically for the speech-disabled
 - Includes biography of Speech-to-Speech founder, Bob Segalman, Ph.D.
- “Tired of hearing, ‘What? I can’t understand you.’” New York Relay Service Speech-to-Speech flyer
 - Reverse side: Video-assisted Speech-to-Speech
- Sprint IP Relay for DeafBlind flyer (print and braille)
- Sprint IP Relay for DeafBlind flyer (print only)
- Hearing Carry-Over New York Relay Service flyer
 - Communication solutions for people with speech loss who prefer to hear their relay calls
- “Stay Connected” Sprint IP Relay flyer
- New York Relay Service Captioned Telephone Service business card