The RAMI Domestic Science Department records contain a wide variety of records relating to the formation, structure and history of the department. A large portion of the collection consists of publications, course guides, enrollment and commencement records, information about alumni and faculty and a variety of original and copied clippings. There are also detailed reports of the history of the department by Miss Mary Bliss, who served as superintendent from 1897-1912 and Alice Lee, a corresponding secretary. The collection also consists of administrative documents including meeting notes, lists of board members and a minute book of the Sub-Committee on Domestic Science from 1893-1895. Included as well is a miscellaneous file which contains blue prints for kitchens and lunchrooms at the downtown campus, student surveys and correspondence.
